General Information on Adoptions

Seek legal advice about your family's options before beginning any adoption. Every family is different and adoption may not be necessary for some families. Visit the Self-Help Guide to the California Courts adoption page to get copies of adoption forms, look for organizations that provide legal help with adoptions, and learn how to complete the adoption process on your own if you do not have a lawyer: www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-adoption.htm. You can also get copies of adoption forms at your local court clerk's office.

In California there are several kinds of adoption. This information sheet provides steps for the following types:

• Stepparent/domestic partner adoptions

- Independent or agency adoptions in the United StatesIntercountry adoptions
- Stepparent/domestic partner confirmation of parentage
 Intercount

Page 4 also has information about open adoptions and special requirements for the adoption of Indian (Native American) children.

Stepparent/Domestic Partner Adoptions

If you wish to adopt the child of your spouse or domestic partner, you may be eligible for a stepparent adoption. There are two types of stepparent adoptions. Answer these questions to figure out which process is right for you:

- → Were you in a union with the child's legal parent at the time the child was born and are you still in a union with the legal parent? (A "union" means a marriage, a California registered domestic partnership, or a registered domestic partnership or civil union from another state that is legally equivalent to a marriage.)
- Did your spouse or domestic partner give birth to the child or was the child born through a gestational surrogacy process brought about by one or both of you?

If you answered no to either question, complete the items below for a stepparent/domestic partner adoption. If you answered yes to both questions, complete the items below for a stepparent adoption to confirm parentage.

(1) Fill out court form	1) Fill out court forms
ADOPT-200	Adoption Request	This tells the judge about you and the child you are adopting.
ADOPT-210	Adoption Agreement	This tells the judge that you and the child, if over 12, agree to the adoption. Fill it out, but do not sign it until the judge asks you to sign it.
ADOPT-215	Adoption Order	The judge signs this form if your adoption is approved.
□ ICWA-010(A)	Indian Child Inquiry Attachment	This lets the judge know that you have asked whether the child may be an Indian child.
ICWA-020	Parental Notification of Indian Status	One form is required for each birth parent. This shows that the child's parents have been asked about potential Indian status.
	Additional Forms for	Stepparent Adoption to Confirm Parentage
ADOPT-205 (or an equivalent declaration)	Declaration Confirming Parentage in Stepparent Adoption -OR-	This tells the court how you conceived your child and whether there are any other parents. Only use this if you are seeking a stepparent adoption to confirm parentage. See above for more information on this type of adoption. Both the birth parent and the adopting parent must complete a separate declaration.
ADOPT-206 (or an equivalent declaration)	Declaration Confirming Parentage in Stepparent Adoption: Gestational Surrogacy	This tells the court how you conceived your child and whether there are any other parents. Only use this if you are seeking a stepparent adoption to confirm parentage because the child was conceived through a gestational surrogate and was born outside of California, and the state where the child was born only allowed one intended parent to be named as a legal parent on the child's birth certificate.

Take your forms to court

Take the completed forms to the court clerk in the county where you live. The court will charge a filing fee. Or take the forms to your lawyer or adoption agency, if you are using one. If there is no hearing, form ADOPT-210 must be signed in front of the court clerk or a notary.

Note: In a stepparent adoption to confirm parentage, no home investigation or hearing is required unless ordered by the court for good cause. Sign form ADOPT-210 in front of a notary or the court clerk when you file the forms and a judge will review your request. If the paperwork is complete and you meet the requirements, the judge will sign the Adoption Order and the adoption is complete. If the judge orders an investigation and hearing, go to the next steps.

The social worker writes a report

In most adoptions, a social worker writes a report. This report gives important information to the judge about the adopting parents and the child. The social worker will ask you questions. You may have to fill out forms. You may be required to pay a fee for this report. The social worker will file the report with the court and send you a copy. When you get the report, ask the clerk for a date for your adoption hearing.

Independent or Agency Adoptions in the United States

If this is an independent or agency adoption in the United States, complete items 1 through 4 below. Note: The rights of the existing parents usually terminate with adoptions. In an independent adoption, if the existing and adopting parents agree, the rights of the existing parent(s) do not have to be terminated. See Family Code section 8617(b).

1) Fill out court forms

Intercountry Adoptions

If this is an intercountry (international) adoption, complete items 1 through 6 below.

Note: You must follow this process to adopt your child under California law, even if the adoption was previously finalized in a foreign country. If the child's adoption was finalized in a foreign country, you must file the Adoption Request within the earlier of 60 days of the child's entry to the United States, or the child's 16th birthday.

1) Fill out court forms

ADOPT-200	Adoption Request	This tells the judge about you and the child you are adopting.
☐ ADOPT-210	Adoption Agreement	This tells the judge that you and the child, if over 12, agree to the adoption. Fill it out, but do not sign it until the judge asks you to sign it.

ICWA-020	Parental Notification of Indian Status	One form is required for each birth parent. This shows that the child's parents have been asked about potential Indian status.

2) Postadoption or postplacement visits and reports

If the child's adoption was finalized in a foreign country, there will be at least one postadoption visit provided by the international adoption agency. The report of this visit must be submitted to the court as described below. If the child was born in a foreign country and placed with a California family for adoption in this state, the adoption agency must provide postplacement supervision with up to four visits. These reports are also provided to the court.

3) Attach documentation

If the child's adoption was finalized in a foreign country, you must attach the following documents to your Adoption Request:

- A certified or otherwise official copy of the foreign decree, order, or certification of adoption that reflects finalization of the adoption in the foreign country;
- A certified or otherwise official copy of the child's foreign birth certificate;
- A certified translation of all required documents that are not written in English;
- Proof that the child was granted lawful entry into the United States as an immediate relative of the adoptive parent or parents;

A report from at least one postplacement home visit by an intercountry adoption agency or a contractor of that agency licensed to provide intercountry adoption services in the state of California; and

A copy of the home study report previously completed for the international finalized adoption by an adoption agency authorized to provide intercountry adoption services, in accordance with Family Code section 8900.

) Take your forms to court

Take the completed forms and any required documents to the court clerk in the county where you live. The court will charge a filing fee. Or take the forms to your lawyer or adoption agency, if you are using one.

5) Provide a copy of the forms and documents

If the child's adoption was finalized in a foreign country, provide a copy of the forms and documentation you filed with the court to any adoption agency that provided services to you for your international adoption.

Inquiry and Notice Under the Indian Child Welfare Act

The child and other people in the child's life must be asked specific questions in order to determine whether the child may be an Indian child. The Indian Child Inquiry Attachment (form ICWA-010(A)) should be attached to the Adoption Request. In agency adoptions, it is the responsibility of the agency to ensure that this inquiry is conducted and that the form is made part of the adoption file. In independent adoptions, the adoption service provider, CDSS Regional Office, or delegated county adoption agency is responsible. For more information about the duty of inquiry, see form ICWA-005-INFO.

A completed version of Parental Notification of Indian Status (form ICWA-020) for each birth parent should be attached to the Adoption Request, OR it should be shown that a good faith attempt was made to provide the form to each birth parent, the Indian custodian, or guardian of the child and inform them that they are required to complete and submit the form to the court. In agency adoptions, it is the responsibility of the agency to ensure that this form is provided to the birth parents and made part of the adoption file. In independent adoptions, the adoption service provider, CDSS Regional Office, or delegated county adoption agency is responsible.

If there is reason to believe that the child is or may be an Indian child, additional inquiry is required. For more information about the duty of inquiry, see form ICWA-005-INFO.

If, at any time during the proceeding, there is reason to know that the child is an Indian child, notice must be provided of the adoption request to the child's tribe or tribes, parents, Indian custodian, and the Bureau of Indian Affairs, using Notice of Child Custody Proceeding for Indian Child (form ICWA-030). This form must be served by registered or certified mail, with return receipt requested.

□ If it is determined that the child is an Indian child or this is a tribal customary adoption, see Adoption of an Indian Child, below.

Adoption of an Indian Child

If you are adopting an Indian child, fill out and bring to court the following additional forms:

Adoption of Indian Child (form ADOPT-220); and

Parent of Indian Child Agrees to End Parental Rights (form ADOPT-225).

If this is a tribal customary adoption, a copy of the tribal customary adoption order must be attached to the petition (form ADOPT-200) and the order (form ADOPT-215).

"Open" Adoption

If you want your child to have contact with their birth family, use Contact After Adoption Agreement (form ADOPT-310) to describe the kind of contact the birth family will have with your child. Fill out this form and bring it to your hearing.

(15)	Consent for adoption
\bigcirc	Complete all sections that apply to your adoption:
	a. The consent of the birth parent is not necessary because (check the applicable reasons under Family Code section 8606):
	 (1) The parent has been judicially deprived of the custody and control of the child. (2) The parent has voluntarily surrendered the right to custody and control of the child in a judicial proceeding in another jurisdiction, under a law of that jurisdiction providing for the surrender. (3) The parent has deserted the child without providing information to identify the child. (4) The parent has relinquished the child under Family Code section 8700. (5) The parent has relinquished the child for adoption to a licensed or authorized child-placing agency in another jurisdiction.
	b. The child has a presumed parent under Family Code section 7611. The consent of the presumed parent is not required because:
	(1) The presumed parent did not become a presumed parent before the mother's relinquishment or consent became irrevocable or the mother's parental rights were terminated. (Family Code section 8604(a).)
	(2) The presumed parent signed a Waiver of the Right to Further Notice of Adoption Proceedings pursuant to Family Code section 7660.5.
	c. Termination of parental rights of an alleged father is not required because:
	(1) The relationship to the child was previously terminated or determined not to exist by a court.
	(2) ☐ The alleged father was served as prescribed in Family Code section 7666 with a written notice of alleged parentage and the proposed adoption, and has failed to bring an action pursuant to Family Code section 7630(c) within 30 days of service of the notice or the birth of the child, whichever is later. (Attach proof of notice to this Adoption Request.)
	(3) The alleged father has executed a written form to waive notice, deny parentage, relinquish the child for adoption, or consent to the adoption of the child.

Adoptions usually require a hearing where most signatures on this form must be completed in front of a judge.

Item 4(b) may be signed before the hearing.

If this is a stepparent adoption to confirm parentage involving a spouse or registered domestic partner who gave • birth to the child during the union, usually no hearing is required and you may sign this form in front of a proper witness. See paragraph 8(a) for instructions on having your signature properly witnessed. If the court orders a hearing in this case, you must sign this form at the hearing in front of the judge.

All other signatures must be signed at a hearing, in front of a judge, unless waived by the judge for good cause.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Court Clerk shall complete and transmit a court report of adoption to CDPH - Vital Records for each decree of adoption granted by any court in the State of California.

CDPH - Vital Records shall transmit court reports of adoptions for births that occurred in another state, the District of Columbia, any territory of the United States, or Canada to the appropriate registration authority.

The information contained in Part I and Part II of this certificate is required in order to identify and seal the original birth certificate and prepare a new birth certificate. Once the original birth certificate is sealed, it is only available upon order of a Superior Court.

INSTRUCTIONS

The agency or department handling the adoption should fill out Parts I and II, but the Court Clerk may complete any incomplete items in Part I or Part II from the information furnished in the court record.

When requested by the adoptive parents, the CDPH - Vital Records shall not establish a new birth certificate for the child. (Health & Safety Code Section 102640.) The adoptive parents should indicate in Item 14 whether they DO want a new birth certificate established (by checking the "Yes" Box) or whether they DO NOT want a new birth certificate established (by checking the "No" Box).

The adoptive parents may request CDPH – Vital Records to omit the specific name and address of the hospital or other facility where the birth occurred by checking the "Yes" Box in Item 15. (Health & Safety Code Section 102645.)

A deceased spouse of an adopting single parent can be listed on the new birth certificate if both adopting parents were in the hormest the time of the initial placement of the child for adopting. Befer to Health & Safety Code Section 10266 for additional multicer bits.
